The kick off for International Education Week will be held on 11/8/07 beginning at 2:00 p.m. in the Student Union Theater with President Hogan giving welcoming remarks.

The PCCSR event, mentioned above, will be held in the Student Union Theater on 11/8/07 at 4 p.m.

The Committee felt that, in addition to Ruth speaking, another person should be invited to participate to balance the event. Shareen will get in touch with Sabhash Jain at the School of Business to see if there is an interest on his part to be a part of the presentation. Specifically, for Dr. Jain to provide a brief set of comments in reaction to the feature presentation.

In addition to the above forum, it was suggested that tables be set up outside the theater for the selling of books from the Co Op, for literature from USASS and UConn PIRG and for CREA to sell some of their Fair Trade-Peace Trade items.

The Committee also felt that maybe this event could be videotaped for individuals that can't attend with a link on the website to this event.

In addition to the events at the SU Theater, the Co Op will also have a display.

Julie will talk with Ron Schurin in the President's Office to be sure that this event is mentioned in President Hogan's welcoming remarks at 2 p.m. for the beginning of International Week and the Meade presentation.

Shareen will work with HRI to see about flyers being designed for this event to be posted.

Ruth will get her bio to Julie to draft up a small informational piece that we can begin to use to ask for sponsorship and additional speakers.

Cathy will work to see if we can have the theater for another half and hour and she will make sure that three tables are set up for displays.
